

RUTH PATRICK SCIENCE EDUCATION CENTER 2019 SUMMER MATHEMATICS PROFESSIONAL LEARNING SERIES Strategies for Teaching Underperforming Students

Teachers will engage in

- ❖ Rigorous strategies to empower ALL STUDENTS for success in mathematics
- ❖ Classroom teaching challenges with innovative ideas and proven methods
- ❖ Effective instructional strategies to motivate underachieving students cognitively in mathematics
- ❖ In-depth instructional experiences aligned to the SCCCRM Standards, SC Process Standards, and as referenced in the SC Support Documents and other research-based state and national instructional resources
- ❖ Deeper concept development through problem-based learning
- ❖ Student-centered instructional technology applications
- ❖ Rigorous standards-aligned lessons using Geogebra, Desmos and TI graphing calculator applications (Middle and High School Series)

Who will Benefit?

- ❖ Mathematics Teachers
- ❖ Content Specialists
- ❖ Grade Level Chairs
- ❖ Induction Teachers
- ❖ International Teachers
- ❖ Administrators

Monday - Wednesday 8:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Grades 3 – 5: July 15 – 17, 2019

Grades 6 – 8: July 22 – 24, 2019

Grades 9 – 12: July 29 – 31, 2019

Grades K – 2: August 5 – 7, 2019

Register online at <https://tinyurl.com/RPSECSummer2019> or email the attached registration form to RPSEC@usca.edu. You may also fax to the attention of Gloria Allen at (803) 641-3615.

For more information please email gloriaa@usca.edu or call (803) 641-3592.